Bringing your photographs to life

What to do with your photographs

Your family matters and we head-over-heels believe that your brilliant photographs should be displayed and enjoyed by everyone (and not simply stored on a computer hard drive!)

You'll discover a gorgeous range of handmade wall art, desk frames and presentation options that will fit your home and budget perfectly.

Whether you're treating yourselves or surprising loved ones we're here to help and guide you to, helping you make the most of your photography.

PS. We understand digital files give you comfort, so you'll get the matching digital files with each of the products you choose.

4 steps to getting you started:

1. Flick through this guide and pick out your favourite products
2. Where are your photographs are going to go in your home. Is it above the fireplace? On the bedside table? In the dining room?
3. Measure the spaces in inches where your new frames are going to live and jot this down (and yes, frames are still measured in inches.)
4. Share your ideas with us - remember you can always ask us for help and advice.

Blue Sky Portrait Packages

We know that deciding what to do with your photographs can feel overwhelming. So we've created packages as it gives a great place to start when thinking about displaying your favourite photographs.

Whether you're looking for products for gifting, or for your own wall (or a combination of both) we have created packages to help all styles and budgets. Or if you prefer, you can design your own. Click here for size guide. Matching digital files included with all packages.

Digital Files

We know you want to have the security and flexibility of owning the digital files from your photoshoot. Which is why we include a matching digital file of all of the images that you purchase as products.

With these digital files you you'll be able to print as many copies of your photographs (at the same size you've ordered) as you need for family directly from your private collection link.

Mobile App

You'll be able to always share and enjoy your favourite photographs from your photography experience with Blue Sky Photography using our super clever mobile app.

All your chosen images from your shoot will be created into a clever iPhone and Android compatible app.

With orders over £300, you will receive up to 10 images and with orders over £500, you will receive up to 20 images. The added bonus of the app is that you can share your images with as many families as you like.

PS. The beauty is that you can add images to the app as you return to Blue Sky Photography over the years.

Albums

A Queensberry album is the perfect book filled with memories from your milestone event.

From newborn photoshoots to celebrating Granny's 70th birthday, albums are the perfect way to tell the story of the milestone events in your family's life.

We'll work with you to create the perfect design so that your chosen photographs are presented beautifully. No two albums are the same as they are bespoke, crafted around your images.

All of our albums come in super-soft velvet bags so easy to store on your coffee table or on your bookcase so they are close to hand.

You will also receive matching digital files of all your images featured in your album. This gives you the option to share the images with other family members while creating a brand new heirloom to pass down the generations

BLUE SKY

PHOTOGRAPHY

Professional from start to finish. Lovely photos. Very friendly staff. Even managed to get our camera shy 2 year old to get engaged in the shoot. Fully recommend.

John Taylor

We love Blue Sky. Their style of photography is beautiful, modern and captures the real character of people. We're smitten with you guys.

Claire Downer

We had a great experience at Blue Sky, so did our dog Poppy. she was the star of the show! We love our pictures and so do our family and friends. Would highly recommend.

Vicky Mckenzie

They are everything you would want in a family photographer - relaxed, patient and talented.
